

Kite Color Symmetry

Children color symmetrical designs and patterns on their kites.

What You Need:

Kite shape

Crayons or colored pencils

What You Do:

Each child colors each square and parts of squares on one half of their kite with various colors and patterns. The child must re-create the same thing on the other half (this is making it SYMMETRICAL, meaning the same on both sides).